

I request that the Indiana Telephone Privacy law not be weakened or revised in any way due to FCC actions. My household used to receive an average of 10 unsolicited phone calls a week, usually in the evening. This was very disruptive to our quiet time. Since the Indiana law is in effect we rarely receive calls of this type or nature. If I want to follow-up with companies I have previously done business with, I will call them. Thank you.